

Councilman David Hamilton, a licensed attorney in the State of Ohio and former assistant prosecutor for the City of Akron, is currently serving his first term as the District 5 representative for the Summit County Council. District 5 includes parts of the City of Akron, Copley Township, parts of Bath Township and the City of Fairlawn.

Councilman Hamilton currently serves as Chair of the Public Safety Committee and also serves on the Health & Human Services, Planning & Economic Development and Rules committees for Summit County Council.

His service on these committees is directly related to his strong interests in the safety, well-being and economic development opportunities for his constituents and the healthy evolution and growth of the County as a whole.
