COUNTY COUNCILMAN FRANK COMUNALE TO HOST DISTRICT MEETING ON CRIME

Summit County Councilmember Frank Comunale, District 4 has announced that he will host a District meeting on Tuesday, October 18, 2011 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at Georgetown Condominiums, 35 Menlo Park Dr. in West Akron.

Crime has become as serious issue in West Akron, and Mr. Comunale welcomes guest speakers, Akron Chief of Police James Nice, Captain Michael Caprez and Northwest Akron Blockwatch founder and president, Marilyn Keith to talk about Blockwatch and other Crime Prevention Strategies.

Councilman Comunale will be available to answer questions and hear concerns from constituents. District 4 includes part of the City of Akron and part of the City of Cuyahoga Falls.

“The health and safety of our residents is very important to me and the information that will be shared about Crime and what can be done about it will be valuable to us all,” said Comunale.

For more information, please contact the Summit County Council Office at (330) 643-2725.
